Pinuaga Nature 2006 Tempranillo

From 35-year-old vines, this fragrant wine conjures up Mediterranean herbs, tanned leather, moist earth and wild berries.

Pinuaga 2004 Tempranillo

The big brother to Pinuaga Nature, this ramps up the alcohol (to 14.5 percent) and flavors to match. Dark and oaky, it rolls through red and black berries, forest undergrowth, mint and chocolate.
